At Mayhew's Trial

Auditor Testifies $30,000 Check Still Outstanding

The field auditor whose probe of records in the tax collection office of the Hancock County sheriff's office bared an alleged $37,787.01 shortage continued on the stand today at New Cumberland in the embezzlement trial of Edgar W. Mayhew of Pughtown.

J. Rector Britton, whose report of the audit of office records contains 193 pages, is the eighth witness of Prosecutor Floyd R. Tarr in his case against the 64-year-old former chief tax deputy, on trial for alleged embezzlement of $5,000.

THE PARKERSBURG auditor, 40, took the stand Thursday at 1:25 p. m. and was questioned on various transfer checks, the sheriff's monthly financial statements, bank ledger cards and records of deposits and checks, all introduced as state's evidence.

An accountant since he was graduated from Parkersburg High School in 1934, Britton testified yesterday that the county sheriff's records for the fiscal year ending June 30, 1955, balanced, but that a transfer check for $30,000 drawn on the Peoples Bank and deposited in the Bank of Weirton still was outstanding for that period.

He added there was an outstanding check for $30,000 at the end of the next fiscal year ending June 30, 1956.

But when asked by the prosecutor's aide as to whether the audit for 1955-56 revealed a shortage in tax funds, the defense objected sharply and the jury of 11 men and one woman was recessed for nearly an hour.

ATTY. GILBERT Bachmann, chief defense counsel, objected to the question and Judge James G. McClure ruled that arguments between the attorneys should not

Republicans' Views Waited On Tax Slash

Reply To Kennedy Plea To Be Started Tonight By Byrnes

WASHINGTON (AP) — Republicans tell the nation tonight and Saturday their side of the tax story—why they feel Congress should not cut taxes without a brake on spending.

The reply to President Kennedy's radio and television appeal for his $11-billion tax cut program will be launched this evening by Rep. John W. Byrnes of Wisconsin.

Byrnes, senior Republican member of the tax-writing House Ways and Means Committee, has pledged to "oppose the tax bill with every ounce of energy at my command" unless the House attaches to it a spending lid amendment he has drafted.

The Conference of House Republicans has endorsed the Byrnes amendment.

Byrnes' talk will be carried by the ABC and CBS television and radio networks at 6 p. m. Eastern Standard Time today and by Mutual radio at 6:35 p. m.

Rep. Thomas B. Curtis of Missouri will speak on NBC television and radio at 6 p. m. Saturday. Curtis is senior Republican House member of the Joint Economic Committee and also serves on the Ways and Means Committee.

Depends On Russian Leaders

U.S. Seen Near Liberal Trade With Soviet Bloc

WASHINGTON (AP)—The United States appeared today to be on the threshold of new and more liberal agricultural trade relations with the Soviet bloc.

Whether it will cross the threshold may depend more on the Soviet leaders than American. A friendly gesture in the form of a Communist offer to buy surplus U.S. wheat could bring expanded trade with the Soviet Union and its satellites.

Soviet purchases this week of $500-million worth of Canadian wheat and $90-million worth of Australian wheat has whet the appetite of American producers, traders and some government officials for a piece of the big Iron Curtain market.

Lawmakers from farm states have joined to demand that the United States try to cash in.

Actually, barriers to sales of U.S. farm products to the Soviet bloc have been more imaginary

Young Denies Rumor About Envoy Post

Senator Declines To Indicate Plans On New Term Bid

WASHINGTON (AP)—Sen. Stephen M. Young, D-Ohio, brushed aside today rumors he might take an ambassadorship instead of seeking reelection next year and thus open the way for astronaut John H. Glenn Jr. to try for his seat.

At the same time, Young, 72, declined to indicate whether he plans to make the race for a second six-year term.

But those close to Young predict he will seek reelection in 1964. Young said he expects to make known his decision in November or early December. Filing time in Ohio is Feb. 8.

Asked about reports that the White House would offer him an ambassador's job and that Glenn then would run on the Democratic ticket for the Ohio Senate seat, Young replied:

"President Kennedy was a close personal friend of mine in both the House and the Senate, but I do not believe his friendship is so much that he would finance me as an ambassador to some big country—and I do not have enough money of my own to become an ambassador."

Race Peace Committee Welcomed

Birmingham Gives Nod To Kennedy's Selection Of Two

BIRMINGHAM, Ala. (AP) — Mayor Albert Boutwell welcomed today the appointment of a presidential commission seeking racial peace in troubled Birmingham.

But he disagreed sharply with Negro leaders who urged President Kennedy to send troops to maintain order in Birmingham, where the Sunday bombing of a church killed four Negro girls.

Kennedy talked to the Negro leaders at the White House Thursday. Five Birmingham community leaders will meet with Kennedy in Washington Monday.

Boutwell applauded the selection of the former Army football coach, Earl Blaik, and former Secretary of the Army Kenneth C. Royall for the mission to Birmingham, praising them as distinguished and able men devoid of "any stigma of politics or partiality."

"We welcome, as a city and a people, the cooperation of any who are willing to understand our difficulties and be genuinely helpful in their solution," the mayor said.

Royall, 60, an attorney, once was a state senator in North Carolina.

Blaik, 66, is chairman of the executive committee of Avco Corp. He was the coach who built Army into a national football power during World War II.

Shortly before Kennedy announced the appointments, Boutwell told newsmen many of Birmingham's troubles were caused by "outsiders both white and colored" who "have come in here and agitated to the point where they have made our people more tense."

After talking with the Negro leaders, Kennedy urged cooperation and restraint by all Birmingham citizens and announced appointment of the two-man commission.

Abducted, Attacked Woman

Manhunt Pushed For Killer-Thief

NILES, Ohio (AP) — An intensive manhunt was underway today for a gunman who authorities said killed a vending machine operator, robbed three persons and raped a woman.

Object of the search that was concentrated in the Portage County area was a man identified as David H. Zirwas, 25, of Lake Milton. The curly-haired, left-handed Zirwas was last seen driving a white Cadillac convertible near Rootstown in Portage County. The license number is AM 3662.

Orlando Dilullo, chief deputy in Mahoning County, said the robbery and abduction victims and witnesses of the slaying of Ben Krawiecki established the identification.

Dilullo said the attack on the woman occurred in a lover's lane in Lake Milton Thursday night, several hours after Krawiecki was killed. He quoted Mrs. Mary Lou Borowice, 27, of Warren, as saying the gunman drove her to a secluded spot, raped her, then sped from the wooded area in his car.

Mrs. Borowice and Allen Cornell, 28, of Lake Milton, were sitting in his parked car on Ohio 18 near Niles when a man wielding a gun appeared and ordered Cornell from the car. Dilullo said. The assailant then fled in the car with Mrs. Borowice.

Krawiecki, 46, of Youngstown, was shot and killed by a gunman witnesses said is left handed. Krawiecki, an employee of the National Cigarette Company, a Youngstown vending machine company, was gunned down on a street corner in Niles.

A number of persons, including some utility company repairmen working on a power line, witnessed the shooting at 4 p. m. They said a man waiting in Krawiecki's parked car killed Krawiecki. A shot was fired from the car window with a .45-caliber pistol.

The gunman took $100 from Krawiecki and fled in the slain man's car.

About an hour later a man answering the description of the hunted gunman got a haircut at the T. W. Mulligan barbershop west of Youngstown, then got $35 in a holdup.

Police in Portage and Summit counties were alerted after a Portage deputy spotted the white convertible at 1:30 a. m. today. He radioed for help and a road block was set up but the car apparently turned off onto a side road and eluded police.

Authorities said Zirwas had been charged with pandering in Las Vegas and also has a juvenile record in Girard. He was described as a $550-a-month factory worker in Niles.

Police were unable to give a motive for the slaying.

The National Cigarette Company's president is Frank T. DeNiro and its secretary-treasurer is Louis DeNiro.

2 Area Potters Hurt In Elevator Accident

Two pottery employees hurt when a cable on an elevator broke this morning and the elevator dropped one floor, are in "fair" condition at City Hospital.

Charles W. Hughes, 33, of 943 St. George St. and William E. Nichols, 39, of Chester R. D. 1, were admitted at mid-morning for fractures of the right heels suffered in the mishap at the Homer Laughlin China Co.

Showers Will Bring Cooler Temperature

Scattered showers are forecast through Saturday with an accompanying dip in temperature.

The Ohio weatherman said there also is the chance of a few thundershowers today, with a high range of only 62 to 68 degrees contrasted to the low 80's of the past few days.

Tonight's low range will be 51 to 57. The downtown had 61 at 6 this morning, so the mercury may not have far to climb to reach the expected afternoon high.

Man Injured In Crash Of 2 Cars On Turn

Wellsville Driver Cited For Wreck In Highlandtown Area

A Wellsville area man was injured in a two-car collision in the Highlandtown area Thursday night, one of three district mishaps reported by the Ohio Highway Patrol at Lisbon.

Donald Buxton, 23, of Wellsville R. D. 1 was treated at City Hospital for a laceration of the hip and possible chest injuries suffered in the wreck on Township Rd. 791 a half mile south of Route 39 at 8:35 p. m.

The patrol said Buxton, driving a 1963 compact, rounded a curve too wide and struck the side of an oncoming sedan operated by Jon Huebner, 24, of Cuyahoga Falls.

There was considerable damage to both vehicles. Buxton was charged with driving left of center.

Evelyn Brown of Louise St. suffered a bruise over the right eye when the car in which she was a passenger was struck from behind by another auto on Route 267 at Densmore St.

The patrol said a car driven by Ernest Brown, 41, of 838 Northside Ave. slowed for a fire truck parked along the roadway, and his car was hit in the rear by one driven by James Paul Logston, 28, of Chester R. D. 1.

The woman was a passenger in Brown's car.

Sheba Oda Collins, 53, of Lisbon R. D. 3 was cited after her 1951 convertible ran off Route 7 about four miles north of Route 30 last night at 6:25 and hit guardrails.

She was charged with driving while intoxicated and taken to the County Jail at Lisbon.

Slashed Weirton Girl In 'Critical' Condition

WEIRTON — A 19-year-old woman whose throat was slashed Thursday morning was in "critical" condition today at Weirton General Hospital.

Karen Adams, 3941 Main St., was rushed to the hospital about 9 a. m. Thursday after the slashing in her apartment above the Welcome Bar, police said.

Police arrested Arthur F. Roberts, 34, who is charged with felonious assault and is being held in Hancock County Jail in New Cumberland under $10,000 bond.

Police said they were unable to question the victim, whose windpipe was severed with a pen knife. Roberts is slated for a preliminary hearing in Municipal Court Wednesday.

President Links Peace To Limited A-Test Ban Pact

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) — President Kennedy said today the world may have reached "a pause in the cold war." He suggested it be dramatized by a U.S.-Soviet expedition to the moon with the two nations pooling research and experience in space.

In a major foreign policy pronouncement before the United Nations, Kennedy said the negotiation of a limited nuclear test-ban treaty—which he predicted would win "overwhelming endorsement" from the U.S. Senate next week—could prove "the start of a long and fruitful journey" toward peace.

And he said it might be followed by a joint American-Soviet effort to place the first humans on the moon, "not as the representatives of a single nation, but the representatives of all humanity."

In his address prepared for delivery to the 18th General Assembly, Kennedy also called for steps toward disarmament and a broader test ban, abolition of a racial and religious discrimination everywhere, and new efforts to strengthen the United Nations as an instrument of international co-operation.

The President's address had been awaited with mounting interest because it followed by one day a generally conciliatory talk to the General Assembly by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

In his only reference to Gromyko's talk, Kennedy said: "We must continue to seek agreement, encouraged by yesterday's affirmative response to this proposal, by the Soviet foreign minister, on an arrangement to keep weapons of mass destruction out of outer space."

With the reference to Gromyko's speech, which also called for a summit conference on disarmament next year, Kennedy went on to make his dramatic proposal for the joint moon shot.

In space, Kennedy said, both the United States and the Soviet Union have "a special capacity." Furthermore, he argued, both have agreed through the United Nations that they will make no territorial claims in space.

Having prepared this backdrop, Kennedy said:

"Why, therefore, should man's first flight to the moon be a matter of national competition? Why should the United States and the Soviet Union, in preparing for such expeditions, become involved in immense duplications of research, construction and expenditure?"

"Surely we should explore whether the scientists and astronauts of our two countries—indeed of all the world—cannot work together in the conquest of space, sending some day in this decade to the moon, not the representatives of a single nation, but the representatives of all humanity."

Even though Kennedy said this might become a worldwide project he emphasized the "special capacity" of the United States and the Soviet Union and used the term "a joint expedition to the moon."

There was no doubt that he regarded this as a possible avenue of dramatic cooperation between the principal cold war adversaries. But he also stressed that such a step, and others he suggested, "will require on our part full consultation with our allies."

While holding out an olive branch, Kennedy indirectly belabored the Soviet Union for its record in Germany, Cuba, the Congo, the United Nations and elsewhere.

And, he said that the United States is not without stain—specifically, in the area of racial discrimination.

Said Kennedy: "The United States of America is opposed to discrimination and persecution on grounds of race and religion anywhere in the world, including our own nation. We are working to right the wrongs of our own nation." Kennedy did not confine his discussion of discrimination to the United States, however. He condemned the oppression of Buddhist priests in South Viet Nam, the closing of synagogues in the Soviet Union, the Hungarian government's treatment of Joseph Cardinal Mindszenty who is in exile in the U.S. Legation in Budapest, and a ban on Protestant missions in some countries.

Recalling his address to the General Assembly two years ago, Kennedy said that at that time "the shadow of fear lay darkly across the world."

But today, he said, "the clouds have lifted a little so that new rays of hope can break through." And he termed the test-ban treaty the first specific step in 17 years to limit the nuclear arms race.

"We meet today," said Kennedy, "in an atmosphere of rising hope, and at a moment of comparative calm."

Offers Moscow As Site

Gromyko Urges Summit Parley On Disarmament

UNITED NATIONS, N. Y. (AP) —Delegates hope cold war tensions will ease further today in the wake of a mild speech by Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko.

Many hoped the relaxed atmosphere would set the scene for fruitful talks next week when Gromyko confers with Secretary of State Dean Rusk and British Foreign Secretary Lord Home. Gromyko also will meet with the President Kennedy in Washington.

Most Western and neutralist delegates described Gromyko's speech Thursday as conciliatory and encouraging, but there were some reservations.

Gromyko proposed an 18-nation summit meeting on disarmament before next June 30 and offered Moscow as a site. The 17 nations which have debated disarmament long and fruitlessly at Geneva, plus France, which boycotted the Geneva conference, would be represented at the summit meeting.

Gromyko also proposed that the Soviet Union and the United States be allowed to retain some nuclear weapons until the final stage of complete disarmament. He threw out this idea, he said, to overcome Western objections to earlier Soviet proposals that would have stripped all powers of nuclear weapons before the final step in disarmament. That would leave the West at the mercy of superior Soviet bloc manpower.

'Paladin' Badly Hurt As Car Hits Another

Investigating officer E. T. Loftus said Boone's head hit the windshield of his Maserati and his chest broke the steering wheel.

Boone, star of television's "Have Gun, Will Travel" show, then walked two blocks to his home in the suburb of Pacific Palisades and his wife, Claire, called a doctor.

Police said he suffered facial cuts, a possible broken nose, possible broken ribs and knee cuts.

Quick Verdict Seen In Trial

BEAVER — A jury was expected to return a quick verdict today in the murder trial of Paul James Cook, accused of slaying his father, mother and sister with an ax and shotgun 24 years ago.

Judge Morgan H. Sohn, Asst. District Atty. Joseph S. Walko and Cook's defense counsel all urged the jury to return a verdict of not guilty by reason of insanity. The jury received the case at 10:30 this morning.

Cook, now 41, was released from the Fairview Hospital for the Criminally Insane in February after the staff said he had regained his sanity and was able to stand trial.

For his first seven years at Fairview, Cook had no sense of what he had done. Dr. John Shovlin, hospital superintendent, said at the trial. He began to face reality in 1946 but didn't begin full recovery until 1957. He no longer is a threat to society, Dr. Shovlin testified.

The department also has two pumps and an emergency truck at present.

The group approved first reading of an amendment to the by-laws calling for appointment of the fire chief by the executive committee, and appointment of other officers by the chief.

The chief and officers have been elected in the past.

The firemen checked brush fire fighting equipment prior to the association meeting with Reckner, captain, in charge. Devine Banks presided at the association meeting. Sixteen attended.

Members attended a meeting of the Tri-State Firemen's Association at Ohioville afterward.

Fighting The Public Conscience

When President Kennedy goes over congressional heads to urge popular support for tax reduction, he is not at his best.

Why should he find it necessary to convince his countrymen they should support tax reduction? Politicians grow up at the ward boss' knee believing tax reduction is the best vote bait in existence.

Rank-and-file voters are supposed to be helpless when tax reduction is dangled in front of their eyes. Taxes are never popular. One of the prime political axioms, used through generations of applied politics, is: "Vote for all spending and against all taxing."

But tax reduction in 1963 does not find rank-and-file voters snapping at the bait. A most unusual thing has happened.

HERE IS A proposition supposedly sure-fire that has been sputtering its fuse ever since it was thrown into discussion last January.

The recession it was supposed to ward off has failed to materialize. The Wall Street Journal reported in its Sept. 18 edition that the "current business upswing displays a remarkable immunity to the ravages of time."

The tax relief it was designed to give has been interesting but not irresistible to masses of taxpayers supposed to be hysterical about tax relief. It is as if the ordinary run of people had looked at the array of household appliances mentioned by Mr. Kennedy in his appeal for support and said they intended to buy them tax cut or not tax cut.

As for the unemployed and what a tax cut might mean to them, it is more obvious to people who work for wages than it is to the President that in the first place the unemployed pay no income taxes, being without income, and in the second place do not believe a tax cut would put them to work.

PRESIDENT KENNEDY is earnest about a tax cut. He must be puzzled by the cold shoulder his proposal has received.

U.S. Steel Reorganization

Cleveland is reeling under a United States Steel reorganization that will take away two of the corporation's offices and relocate them in Pittsburgh.

Upward of 1,000 Clevelanders will be affected by the shift, and no secret is made of the prospect that many will have no chance to find new jobs with U.S. Steel or any other employer.

The reorganization plan, which is to be unfolded a little at a time as the corporation proceeds with a program to step up its efficiency, will affect some other communities adversely. Whatever good effects it is designed to have will not be felt in cities with U.S. Steel offices and plants, except Pittsburgh.

This has become a typical experience in connection with the operation of the companies and corporations whose management success is the backbone of successful American enterprise. Many are now reorganizing.

Taking Off For 1964

There is conformity of opinion among leading spokesmen for the auto industry—another big year is due, the third in a row.

There is conformity of opinion among potential buyers of the 1964 models, too—the 1964 cars are attractive and saleable.

It would not be surprising if manufacturers and buyers, with the assistance of dealers and a generally favorable economic climate, put together another more-than-7 million year.

But it shouldn't be surprising, because the all-time sales record for autos was recorded nine years ago in 1955 when the population was only 166 million and 48 million family units. Today, the population has increased to 190 million and 55 million families. At the 1955 pace that would mean 8,480,000 cars.

In 1955, the auto industry made and sold 7,400,000 cars, a high-water mark never approached until the current year. It is estimated that the final tally for 1963 will be 7,920,000.

The trouble with all projections of auto sales is the fact no one can foresee just what will convert potential buyers into actual buyers. The 1963 models caught the public eye and tickled its fancy. They were popular.

At first sight, the 1964 models are even more pleasing on the eye and no less pleasing to the pocketbook. Yet, no one knows. There was that awful slump in 1960 when half a million imported cars were bought by Americans in cash-register protest against U.S. manufacturers.

The fright that gave the industry has worn off. It is discarding the compacts that foreign competition forced it to produce. As a wag puts it, the 1964 compacts will come in three sizes: large, larger, largest. Emphasis is back on speed and horsepower again—and seat belts.

WE SHALL BE well-advised to keep an eye on creeps with preoccupations about Salvation through Science. Scientists are no more to be trusted with human destiny than the mystics and brutalitarians who kicked us around in the past.

Scientists have their place, but not on top of the heap. Somewhere in the middle would be about right, along with the rest of us.

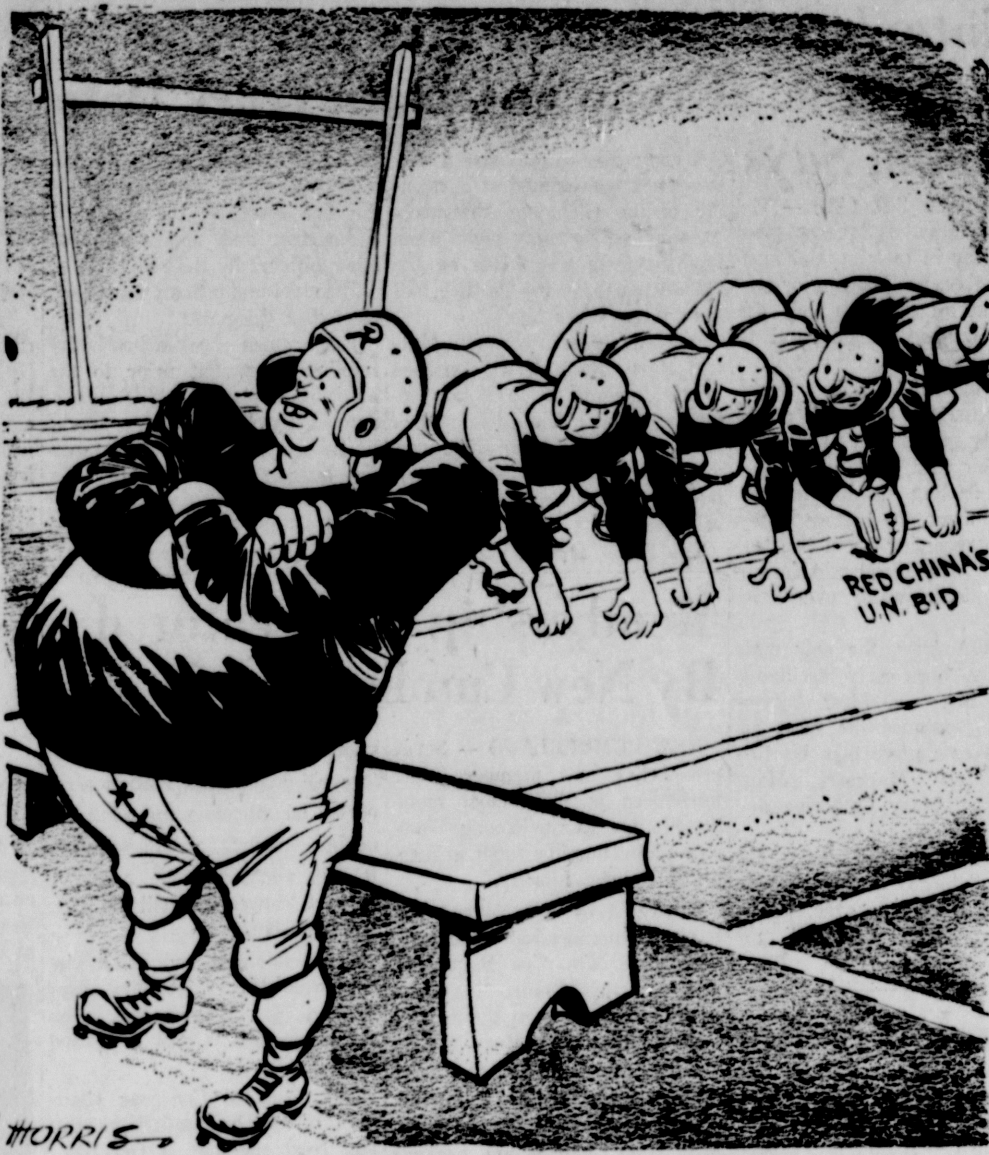

I am sore because I saw this coming when we started the shift away from liberal arts to science and trade school education after Sputnik I. We took a wrong turn, and now we're getting uneasy about the road we're traveling.

Regards to the entire family.

Reuther Faces Fight In AFL-CIO

By Victor Riesel

The closest thing to a championship bout inside labor will be held in the grand ballroom of a New York hotel this November — with Walter Reuther in one corner and some mighty sturdy, through little-known, challengers in the other.

Reuther will be forced into battling for his prestige and Victor Riesel that of his allies in the national labor arena. There are insiders who say that if he loses this fight he will have no alternative but to take his powerful auto union out of the national AFL-CIO coalition. That would deprive the federation of a million members.

The battle will develop, not with a direct assault by the "old line" construction and building trades unions on Reuther himself, but with their attempt to bump his close friend and ally, Jim Carey, from the high command of the AFL-CIO Executive Council.

This maneuver will be made at the Fifth Biennial Convention of the national organization opening New York on Nov. 14.

IT'S THIS PARLEY, representing some 12.5 million members, which elects this executive council. "Young" Jim Carey, president of the big International Union of Electrical Workers, is a member of that 29-man directorate.

If Carey is voted out of the council, he automatically loses his place on the virtually unpublicized but influential eight-man AFL-CIO Executive Committee, the federation's interim operating group.

Jim Carey's opponent already has been chosen by the officials of the 18 national construction unions. He is Edward Carluh, Sheet Metal Workers' International Association president, an outgoing, outspoken Irish chap always ready to do battle for his cause. And his cause is to run against Carey for the high command post.

Carluh has a small but powerful union of some 75,000 men. It has not hesitated to get into showdown battles with the million-member United Steelworkers, for example, when Carluh and his colleagues believed they, not the steel union, should lead the workers in a giant plant.

THE SIZE of Carluh's union is not important. Behind him is the weight of shrewd veteran strategists who lead some three million building and construction workers. And that's a lot of weight.

Behind their willingness to throw it around is an ancient feud with the former CIO unions. The construction men are from the old AFL. There is sharp competition now for hundreds of thousands of jobs in the plants of the nation.

The unions which Reuther once led as president of the CIO, now sign pacts with management, preventing companies from hiring outside contractors for the maintenance of the plants.

Under such agreements, for example, the corporations must use for plant maintenance only those electricians, plumbers, carpenters, etc., who belong to the union inside the plant — whether they be the steelworkers, the auto workers or Jim Carey's electrical workers.

Thus the unions of single crafts are frozen out of the plants. They don't like it. For a long time they've wanted a showdown. Now their strategy is to prove their strength by defeating Carey's bid for reelection as an AFL-CIO vice president.

REUTHER CAN'T take this without a fight. If Carey is forced off the high council and therefore its executive committee, Reuther would lose the vote of his most faithful ally. And Reuther already is a minority force — on both boards.

Furthermore Reuther cannot permit Carey to go down undefeated, because Carey is a symbol of the old CIO's type of industrial unionism. Carey was secretary-treasurer of the old CIO. He holds the same position in the AFL-CIO Industrial Union Dept., of which Reuther is president.

Therefore Reuther will fight if the neutrals don't deter Ed Carluh from running against Carey. If Carluh does run, the betting odds are in his favor.

Carey's double-edged razor tongue has not exactly made him the most popular chap inside labor. AFL-CIO president George Meany, who positively will run for reelection, would sooner have hives than Carey.

Thus it is possible that Reuther may lose this fight on the open floor of the national convention. There would then be little to hold him inside the AFL-CIO. Doughty old John L. Lewis once stood where Reuther now stands.

The miners' leader took a walk. Reuther may, too.

Day Of Mourning

By David Lawrence

Tribute Needed For Race Strife Victims

President Kennedy has been asked by members of Congress to proclaim soon a day of mourning for the four Negro children killed in the church bombing in Birmingham last Sunday. This is a step that would emphasize the nation's profound regret that such a tragedy could have happened. David Lawrence

It would, however, be fitting if the President also asked the American people to mourn for all the victims — white and Negro — who have died as a result of racial disturbances in recent months.

The records show that, in the space of a few months, deaths of four whites as well as nine Negroes, or a total of 13 persons, have occurred. As yet, no one has been convicted in any of these cases.

There have been 21 bombings in Birmingham alone in the past eight years, but the one last Sunday was the first in which anyone was killed. This has given rise to the theory that the dynamiting was intended primarily to terrorize, because in every church bombing except the last the bombs exploded either before or after services.

A news dispatch from Birmingham says that some white leaders have accused Negroes of being responsible for the bombings to gain national attention for their cause.

Thus far the American people have no way to fix the responsibility for these bombings. There has been a lot of loose talk — some of it bordering on libel — mentioning certain public officials as "responsible" for the murder of children at the Birmingham church.

The killings in recent months have occurred under differing circumstances but usually in connection with "demonstrations" or riots, thus raising the question as to whether public demonstrations under highly emotional circumstances are really useful.

PROTESTS at public meetings gain publicity just the same as street "demonstrations," but it is the latter which become provocative because there are still many citizens who do not understand the right of petition and resent the expression of views with which they don't agree.

In order to introduce a spirit of mutual understanding and in the hope that the processes of reason will be substituted for violence and threats of violence, a day of mourning proclaimed nationally by the President could have constructive results. Every family — both white and Negro — which has suffered a loss deserves the sympathy and compassion of the nation.

In the news dispatches for the last 12 months, the following deaths have been noted:

Sept. 30, 1962 — French newsmen Paul Guillard and TV repairman Walter R. Gunter, of Oxford, Miss., slain during riot that accompanied the forced enrollment of Negro James Meredith at the University of Mississippi. Unsolved.

April 23, 1963 — Baltimore postman William L. Moore shot to death near Gadsden, Ala., while staging a one-man "freedom walk" to deliver letter to Gov. Barnett of Mississippi, urging racial moderation. The Elowah County Grand Jury refused on Sept. 13 to indict Floyd L. Simpson, 40, arrested in connection with the crime two days after Moore was killed.

June 6, 1963 — Fred Link, 24, automobile mechanic, killed by a rifle bullet fired into a crowd of whites during a riot at Lexington, N.C. Three Negroes have been charged with his death.

ALL WERE white. The Negro victims include:

June 13, 1963 — Civil Rights leader, Medgar Evers, 37, shot from ambush in driveway of home at Jackson, Miss. A white man, Byron Beckwith, has been charged, and is being held in jail.

Aug. 10, 1963 — Serina Taylor, 14, killed at Jersey City, N.J., by a shotgun blast fired by white man. One white charged with murder, a second with assault with intent to kill. Incident grew out of earlier argument between seven or eight whites and a group of Negro youths, and about half-hour later two of the whites returned to scene in a car and fired shotguns at random. Girl killed as she stood on steps of house talking to friends.

Sept. 4, 1963 — John D. Coley, 20, killed by bullet in the neck during rioting that broke out in Birmingham after home of Negro attorney Arthur Shores was bombed for the second time in two weeks. Not determined who fired bullet that killed him.

Sept. 15, 1963 — Four Negro girls — Cynthia Wesley, 14, Denise McNair, 11, Carol Robertson, 14, Addie Mae Collins, 14 — killed by bomb blast in 16th Street Baptist Church in Birmingham. Johnny Robinson, 16, died from shotgun wound inflicted by a policeman when he ignored police orders to stop throwing rocks at whites' cars during the disorder that followed church bombing. Virgil Wade, 13, was killed while riding bicycle just outside Birmingham, and two white youths charged with the shooting — Michael Lee Farley, 16, and Larry Joe Sims, 16 — signed statements admitting firing the shots.

IN ADDITION to the above, Dennis Earl Robinson, 16, white, is still in a critical condition in a Birmingham hospital. He was hit by a rock thrown by a Negro boy in the violence that followed the bombing on Sept. 15.

There have also been many whites and Negroes injured during these disorders, but not critically. All these victims might well be remembered on the day of mourning proclaimed by the President.

Disarm Talks Futile

By James Marlow

This country has spent over $500 billion on defense since the war but year after year the outcome of disarmament talks with Russia could be predicted by a child: Nothing.

A ban on nuclear tests would be the sensible first point in any agreement on disarmament but the United States and Russia gaggled on how to achieve that much accord. So everything broke down on that.

While the two nations might be able to agree on banning tests in the atmosphere, outer space and underwater, since they had instruments to check cheating in those regions, they got stuck on how to ban underground tests.

For this the United States wanted an inspection system. The Russians said inspection was spying. Even early in 1963 Kennedy was doubtful there could be any agreement on a test ban. Yet by midsummer of 1963 agreement was reached.

It was done by compromise. All tests would be banned except underground. This was the most important single agreement between the United States and Russia since the war.

The Kennedy administration considered it a possible first step toward even broader settlements. But there is a point here which may have real significance for the future if there is ever to be agreement on disarmament.

The nuclear test-ban agreement was achieved in a British-American-Russian meeting in Moscow, not at the Geneva conference of 18 nations.

Then Thursday in the United Nations in New York, one day before Kennedy was to address the organization, Soviet Foreign Minister Andrei A. Gromyko repeated the 1962 Khrushchev proposal which Kennedy had rejected.

38th Annual Event Flower Show Waited

"Don't forget the flower show this weekend," pretty Garnet Tucker smilingly reminds Tri-State residents as she poses with a huge dahlia bloom in the garden of Leo C. Lawrence, president of the East Liverpool Dahlia and Floral Society.

The society's 38th annual show will be open to the public free of charge Saturday from 4 to 11 p. m. and Sunday from noon to 8 p. m.

The 11 p. m. closing tomorrow is an hour later than in the past in order to allow Potter football fans to visit the show either before or after the game tomorrow night.

School officials have agreed to set aside a section of the Westgate parking lot to accommodate show visitors, Lawrence said.

J. T. Eccleston again is serving as chairman of the show, which will highlight an arrangements section with the theme "Highways to Beauty."

In the various classes, the arrangements are labeled by state and must reflect the designated theme. For example, one class designates "Wren's Nest" in Atlanta, home of Joel Chandler Harris, and the arrangement must suggest the Uncle Remus and Br'er Rabbit tales.

Another class honoring Rhode Island, the smallest state, must be a miniature arrangement under three inches.

A similar theme is used in the arrangements section open only to Garden Club members.

Although this hasn't been a good year for dahlia growers because of a lack of rainfall, the show is expected to meet its usual high standards with virtually every color of the rainbow and many multi-colored blooms competing for awards in the 110 classes in the open dahlia division alone, ranging from huge "A" blooms like Miss Tucker displays to the poms and miniatures.

The grower scoring the most points in the division will receive the W. E. Wells Memorial Award, a 95-piece dinner set from the Homer Laughlin China Co. The Harker China Co. will present the award for the runner-up.

Taylor, Smith & Taylor Co. will provide the award for the sweepstakes of the large amateur division. Winner of the sweepstakes in the basket, vase and bowl division will receive an award from Meade's Restaurant.

Other major awards include the largest dahlia bloom in the show, the largest and most perfect "A" dahlia, most perfect "B" dahlia, most perfect miniature under 4 inches, smallest and most perfect pompon, largest and most perfect ball dahlia and the best case of "A" and "B" dahlias.

There also are 18 classes in the rose division with the sweepstakes winner receiving a trophy from John Eiferd.

There are four classes in the novice dahlia section with the sweepstakes winner receiving a 1963 plant introduced by Haugh Dahlia Gardens.

For junior growers, there's one class in the arrangements section along with an arrangements division for amateurs.

Lawrenceville Firemen Pick 5 Directors For Social Club

Five directors were named for a new social club of the Lawrenceville fire department at a meeting of the firemen Thursday night at the fire station.

Elected were Jack Stover, Clark Lively, Harold Waide, George McDole and Walter Sayre Jr.

A charter has been authorized by West Virginia, and the club will open in October from 1 p. m. to midnight daily.

Stover will be bar steward and Ray Bryan and Clem Barner, retired potters and ex-firemen, will be employed at a $1 an hour.

Membership will be open to Lawrenceville firemen for $3 annually and to social members for $1 annually, to be approved by the firemen.

All volunteer firemen of the area will be given free memberships, a spokesman said.

Stover, president of the department, said the fire department will have full control over the club's operations.

In other business, firemen approved revised bylaws and constitution on first reading.

The volunteers did not attend the Tri-State Firemen's Association meeting last night as planned because the meeting extended to 9:30 p. m.

Next meeting is Oct. 3.

Desks Bought For Southern Local School

The purchase of 75 chair-desks for Southern Local High School and study of additional applications for part-time high school custodial work were authorized at the Board of Education meeting Thursday night at the school at Salineville.

The board approved purchase of the chair-desks to provide full seating at the new school. Costs will be $12.95 each for a total of $971, to be paid from the service fund.

Discussion was held on the need for extra custodial help at the high school, to be paid on an hourly basis, and action was tabled until the next meeting.

Applications for the work may be filed with the clerk, Mrs. Lamont Faulkner, before the meeting Oct. 14.

No action was taken on establishing policy in relation to the recently enacted legislation setting a 40-hour work week for custodians.

Discussion was held on the cornerstone laid at the new school by the Masonic Lodge early this month and whether the emblem on the stone should be retained. A delegation conferred with the board at the last meeting concerning the stone.

John Pattison of East Liverpool, Masonic official, explained the stone was donated to the school and could be changed to suit the board policy.

Jack Stewart, board member, moved the stone be redesigned, but there was no second.

In other action, the board formally voted support for a proposed county vocational school program and rejected an application of a student to attend Wellsville High School with board tuition.

Discussion was held on a question of awarding medals to members of the high school band who took part in the state competition last year and who have withdrawn from the band since. The board agreed to permit the issue to be resolved by the Band Boosters.

In a discussion on permitting students to leave classes early for work, the board set a policy of having parents file a request and the pupil obtain a working certificate.

Cerebral Palsy Treatment Subject Of Intensive Study

A long-range medical study to determine the effectiveness of the various types of treatment currently used in cerebral palsy has been launched by United Cerebral Palsy, Richard G. Brian, president of the Columbiana County Affiliate, announced.

The Research and Educational Foundation of UCP has awarded a $32,000 grant to the American Academy for Cerebral Palsy, national professional organization of physicians and surgeons, for the first year of the study.

He pointed out that such a study will be of tremendous interest to every parent with a cerebral palsied child and to everyone working in the field of cerebral palsy.

"So much new knowledge about cerebral palsy and so many schools of thought have developed in the past decade," Brian said, "that new criteria must be established for the diagnosis and treatment of this condition."

Treatment for the cerebral palsied involves a period of many years and a considerable outlay of money, he explained, and it is therefore most important that the different techniques and approaches to treatment be given a thorough scientific evaluation.

There are 600,000 cerebral palsied persons in this country. Each year 10,000 babies are born with cerebral palsy, a condition most often caused by brain damage before or during birth.

The UCP-sponsored study has already started under the guidance of the committee on evaluation and treatment of the academy, chaired by Dr. Henry H. Banks, clinical associate in orthopedic surgery, Harvard Medical School.

The study will be conducted at the Children's Hospital Medical Center in Boston with Dr. M. M. Tachdjian, former clinical fellow in orthopedic surgery, as principal investigator. Since its founding in 1949 United Cerebral Palsy has channeled $6½ million into research and training projects. The UCP of Columbiana County contributes to this research through its association with the national reorganization.

be overheard by the jury members.

Bachmann contended that he desired to learn the starting point of Britton's audit, declaring that if the auditor started with a wrong figure or an error, then the same error would be revealed at the conclusion of the records check.

Questioned by Judge McClure, Britton said he began his audit from figures obtained from the sheriff's settlement report for June 30, 1954, and extended it through June 30, 1962.

The sheriff's settlement report is a large record book that contains the amount which the sheriff is charged with collecting in taxes, how much he actually collects, the difference which is termed delinquent taxes, plus other receipts and disbursements.

JUDGE MCCLURE then directed Britton to obtain all the records used in the audit so the defense attorneys would have a chance to review them, apparently to test - check Britton's audit.

Testimony ended at 3:15 p. m. instead of the usual time of 4:30 due to the proceedings on the investigation of Britton's audit.

"I know this trial has been held up with delays, but in a trial involving accounting procedures, this is inevitable," Judge McClure told the panel.

At the conclusion of yesterday's Circuit Court testimony, the judge and attorneys retired to chambers to examine several folders of daily cash records used during 1955 through 1962 by the defendant.

BRITTON followed Mrs. Irene Cullen, a clerk in the office, to the stand yesterday morning. The auditor testified as to his education, experience and procedures used when making the audit from

Nov. 2, 1962, to March 20, 1963.

He has been a state auditor for the State Tax Commissioner for the past seven years and is deputy inspector of public offices. "My primary duties are to make routine inspections of all offices in the various county courthouses in the state, assigned by the state tax commissioner and the auditing supervisor," he said.

He said he made a "routine" inspection or audit of Hancock County's records in 1959. He explained that routine meant "analyzing the sheriff's records of settlement of charges and credits, charges of property books from which tax tickets are prepared, inspection of tax records and other receipts, and all checks issued by the sheriff."

HE SAID he very seldom used the sheriff's records of deposits and checks, used consistently by the prosecutor in drawing testimony from Mrs. Cullen and Miss Eleanor Patterson, another clerk. He said this book does not consist of all the individual checks written by the office.

After Britton filed his audit report this spring, the April Grand Jury indicted Mayhew on embezzlement charges. He subsequently ended his employment at the Courthouse and Miss Patterson was promoted as chief tax deputy.

Shortchange Artists Head For Youngstown

LISBON — No further clues were reported to the sheriff's department on the two shortchange artists who were in Columbiana and Jefferson Counties Wednesday evening and early Thursday. They apparently continued to Youngstown.

The two were last seen leaving the Kennedy Restaurant on Route 7 just north of Route 30, where a waitress was bilked out of $7, according to Chief Deputy Robert Beresford.

They were heading north on Route 7 towards Youngstown, driving a 1953 cream or white Pontiac.

Use leftover mashed potatoes for patties. Just mix an egg with two cups of the potatoes and shape; brown in butter or margarine in a skillet. If you have an electric skillet, cook the patties at 340 degrees.

Farmer's Daughter Has All The Answers

Inger Stevens, the Katie Holstrom in the TV version of "The Farmer's Daughter" premiering Friday on ABC, is just back from a five-city tour plugging the new series. Slightly bruised and beaten from the experience, Inger's fondest wish is that interviewers somehow would widen Hal Humphrey the scope of their questioning.

Why did she tie herself down to a series? Is it going to be like the movie? Will she speak with a Swedish accent? Has she ever lived on a farm? Isn't she aware that TV series starring women have had an abnormally high mortality rate recently? What is her politics? What kind of social life does she lead?

IT SEEMED TO ME a fairly diversified set of posers, but after getting hit with the same questions on several occasions for a solid week, Inger decided either she was a shallow-looking individual or her interrogators were lacking in imagination.

"Of course, I know there's hardly ever enough time really to sit and converse with each other, but why doesn't somebody just once ask about my philosophy of life, or do I like kids—actually I hate them," she added, under her breath, and obviously to see if I was listening and how my sense of humor was holding up.

Another question popped at Inger regularly is, "Will you play the part like Loretta Young did in the movie?"

INGER'S ANSWER is that she never saw the movie, and doesn't intend to, for fear she might unconsciously begin aping Loretta.

"Anyway," injects Inger, "I'm a governess, not a domestic as Loretta was in the 1947 movie which won her an Oscar."

She also insists that Katie will not be one of those smarty-pants fixers who solves everything for her congressman-employer.

In the first two episodes (which are hung together with a continuing story line), Katie does turn out to be the fixer. She does it demurely, however, so perhaps she can't be called a smarty-pants.

SOME GOOD WRITING in the episodes I saw and Inger's bright-eyed and ebullient performance would indicate that "The Farmer's Daughter" (TV style) is likely to catch on.

William Windom seems a bit immature for a congressman, but then that seems to be the style in Washington these days.

Directors always seem to go a bit wild with character actors, and what is done here with Catherine Nesbitt (the congressman's mother) and Philip Colledge (his male secretary) is a classic example. They are playing their roles much too archly and as stereotypes as a tinsy portrait.

Inger says she was picked for her role by Screen Gems' production chief, Bill Dozier, who told her the series wouldn't be done unless she agreed to play Katie.

"How could I turn it down after that? He fed my ego to the bursting point," says Inger.

PURRING like a kitten, she signed the contract and has been working, traveling and answering questions ever since.

If the series becomes a hit, Inger will find the national magazines interviewing her "in depth" and digging into her past with the thoroughness of a tax assessor.

Then she will wish for some of the good old cliché questions being thrown at her now. Because sponsors of TV shows want their stars to be exemplary in every fashion. Should Inger have any thoughts on politics, sex or the other things which concern most of us, she'd darned well better guard her tongue.

Somewhere in Hollywood there's got to be another radiant blonde with a Swedish accent and ambition—there always is.

No Need For Hunger While Reducing

Happily surprised, one enthusiastic reducer has written to report that for the first time in her life she is losing weight without going hungry.

Like many overweighters, she had always regarded a diet as doing penance for past overeating, rather than a scientific way of eating to build leanness.

Thanks to the nutrition advances, true hunger is no longer a problem to reducers. If you are going hungry, it means you are not taking advantage of the science of nutrition. For example, you may have the fixed notion that only the foods you do not eat can help you lose. That negative approach can lead to self-pity, and eventually you slip back into your old food habits.

LET'S APPLY nutrition science. The mere act of eating uses calories. But the choice of food is all important. The effect of food in raising the metabolism is termed its specific dynamic action and, of all foods, proteins have the greatest effect. Protein together with the other protective foods, can build leanness. Dieters, mark this down in your book and never forget it...the way to reduce healthfully is to build leanness, instead of half-starving your body.

Research emphasizes the hunger control role of protein. Hunger control hinges on keeping the blood sugar levels steady. You might think from this that a sweet will stave off hunger and therefore help you reduce. While sugar will raise the blood sugar level, it is quickly burned and you feel hungry again in a surprisingly short time. For example, if you have only soup and a dessert and coffee for lunch, you may not get too many calories, but that meal will not stay with you. In a couple of hours you will feel hungry again.

EXPERIMENTS show that it is the protein foods — eggs, lean meat, fish, fowl, cheese and cottage cheese and milk — which maintain blood sugar levels, sustain energy and stave off hunger pangs. Also, there is a better carry-over when a complete protein is included at each of the three meals, starting with breakfast.

When the time between meals is too long to maintain energy, it is wise strategy to have a sustaining snack. Nutritionally the snack plays a dual role — appeases appetite, thus discouraging over-eating at the next meal, and answers the immediate need for energy, thereby minimizing the late morning and late afternoon letdown. It is essential, however, that you snack on protective foods, not on the sweets and starches which most folks associate with piece-mealing.

The new leaflet "Eat To Build Leanness" can help you to get off the merry-go-round of diets and on to a better pattern of eating. Send stamped, self-addressed, long envelope for "Eat To Build Leanness. Address your request to Ida Jean Kain in care of The Review. Postcard requests will not be answered.

Hinkle described playing against Red Grange and Bronco Nagurski of the Chicago Bears, in Shrine East - West and All-Star games.

Having played offensive fullback, defensive linebacker and punter, Hinkle said the use of a man for multiple roles differed from the specialists of today's teams. He played college ball at Bucknell University.

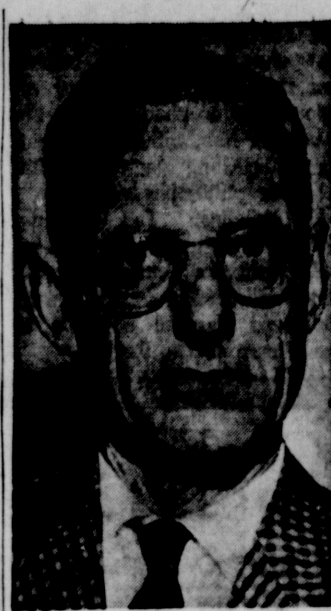

He also spoke at the effect of many complex factors in a grinder's ability on a Sunday afternoon — such as friction between players, family trouble, cliques on the team and other adverse conditions.

Hinkle told of amusing incidents in connection with a film made in Hollywood of the Packers team. He also related the formation of a semi-pro team at Toronto, and of his withdrawal from the team ownership and coach position this year after a change in policy on player salaries.

Because the State Health Department no longer will accept the results of milk tests conducted by the city chemist, the Board of Health decided Thursday night to contract with a Pittsburgh laboratory for the work.

It let a contract to the Pittsburgh Control Laboratory at a cost of slightly more than $4 per sample.

Under the plan, the milk samples will be shipped by bus to Pittsburgh in insulated cans provided by the laboratory.

Dr. J. Keith Rugh, chairman, presided for the discussion.

Mrs. Luella Bevan, registrar of vital statistics, reported 104 births since Aug. 15, including 46 males and 58 females. There were 42 deaths in the same period, she said.

Hints from Heloise

— By Heloise Cruze —

Dear Heloise: Our home is an old house that has been restored. The walls and bathroom give us lots of trouble. Our bathroom walls were plaster and had cracked noticeably. They needed patching and painting. A few months ago I covered the walls, ceiling, and even the medicine cabinet and window sill with contact paper. It completely covered all of the cracks and patches. Furthermore we no longer have to look "forward" to painting each year!

If women cannot afford to do the entire bathroom at one time, they could cover the walls and later when the budget allows, do the ceiling. All this requires is a wiping with a moist sponge.

MRS. DAVID BRADLEY.

DEAR HELOISE: I always used to hate to wash my breadbox because those bread crumbs just seemed to stick in the corners.

One day I used the vacuum cleaner attachment to suck up all the bread crumbs before washing the breadbox. Believe me, it works. Try it when your vacuum is on. Saves time.

MRS. M. W.

Trying to get ahead is nothing... trying to live is something.

Mothers.

DEAR HELOISE: Next time you make a meat loaf, cheat... just a little bit! If you have an empty frozen juice can, stuff it with a little of that extra meat loaf, and cook along with your regular meat loaf.

This may be put in your deep freeze after cooling or will keep in your refrigerator for a couple of days.

It is really cute for parties. Sunday night snacks or to put on top of crackers when company drops in! It may be served cold or reheated. Nice for lunch boxes, too.

HELENA.

DEAR HELOISE: After you have finished knitting a sweater, afghan, or anything that has to be put together, instead of using regular pins, try the long plastic pins we are using these days with our hair rollers!

I also find these plastic pins handy when working with net or any loosely woven material. They are nice and long, do not come out of the material, and best of all... no finger pricks.

VADA BELEN.

DEAR HELOISE: I save all the wax from the top of my homemade jams and jellies. I put these pieces in a fruit jar filled with water. This soaks off anything that might have stuck to them.

When the time comes around to make jelly again I melt this down, heat it to the boiling point (thus sterilizing it completely) and use it to cap jars of jelly over and over and over.

FARMER'S WIFE.

DEAR HELOISE: Iron-on name tapes can be easily made by typing the names and addresses on a strip of iron-on tape... then cutting to the proper size. If you have quite a dark ribbon on your typewriter the labels will wear through many a wash. They may be sewn on or ironed on.

MRS. HAROLD MURRAY.

Mothers: If you don't have a typewriter, try using ball point ink or indelible pencil. Great!

HELOISE.

Housewife-Writer Speaks At Teachers Group Dinner

A vivacious housewife who put her writing talent to work entertained members of the Delta Kappa Gamma Society and guests at a dinner meeting Tuesday night at the Trinity United Presbyterian Church.

Mrs. Janet Henry of Cleveland, who writes a syndicated weekly news column in addition to her publications in magazines here and abroad, spoke in prose and poetry on "A Mother's Eye View."

Using a large flip bulletin board with the outside caption, "And So to Bedlam," she amused the audience with verse about her children, Christy, Ricky, Scotty, Karen, Heidi and Robin, comparing family prototypes.

Sketches on the bulletin board included the pets and other phases of family life which produced the bedlam. Mrs. Henry began writing poetry when 15 but never elaborated on her talents until the arrival of her children. She now has published a book.

Mrs. Gyla Nicely, program chairman of the committee of teachers representing all the schools in Columbiana County, introduced the speaker.

Miss Mildred McGregor, assistant principal of Westgate School, extended the welcome. She is in her second year as president of Alpha Iota Chapter of Delta Kappa Gamma, the honorary educational society for women teachers. She reviewed the scholarship foundations and other service projects of the society, along with those supported by the Quota Clubs of East Liverpool and Salem, whose members were guests.

Recognition was given presidents of Quota, Mrs. Sallie O'Hanlon of East Liverpool and Mrs. Winifred Byers of Salem, and Mrs. Edna Jones, who was named "Woman of the Year" by the Ruritan Club.

Covers were arranged for 105 at the dinner prepared by members of the Women's Association of the church under the supervision of Mrs. Harold Allison, dinner chairman. A centerpiece of mums and roses decorated the speakers' table and roses in crystal vases adorned the individual tables. Favors were miniature boxes of chocolates.

Mrs. Mabel Shearer, vice president, gave the blessing. Hostesses were Miss Della Ingles, Miss Delores Hughes, Miss Gladys DeBolt, Mrs. C. E. Lane and Miss Gertrude Van Meter.

Some Youths In Nazi Party Cell Suspended From School

AKRON, Ohio (AP)—Some of the teen-agers in a 10-member Nazi Party cell have been suspended from classes while police continue their investigation into reports that at least five schools and a cell of up to 20 members are involved.

Suspension of a small number of teen-agers was disclosed Thursday by School Supt. Martin Essex. Police said the 15-20-member cell reportedly attends Central High and Thornton Junior high schools.

Essex said the suspended pupils "are the leaders and those who may need protection." He said, "Many of the other students are not reacting favorably to these youngsters."

Essex said school officials are interviewing the students and their parents to help determine what action is to be taken.

Police questioned three students in Central High and three in Thornton Junior High after a 17-year-old boy said disciples of George Lincoln Rockwell, leader of the American Nazi Party, are in schools throughout the city.

The youth, one of the Central High students, claimed between 15 and 20 youngsters are members of his Akron chapter. The youth said he was working under a Canton man whom he refused to identify, police said.

Gordon Humbert, Canton schools superintendent, said there has been no evidence of any Nazi Party activity there.

Last week police uncovered a party cell of 10 members from East High and Hower High and Goodyear Junior high schools.

Hearings start next Thursday in Juvenile Court for six teen-agers cited for Nazi activities.

Course Is Conducted For Civil Air Patrol

A class on "Airports, Airways and Electronics" was conducted at a meeting of Wellsville Composite Squadron 1303, Civil Air Patrol, Wednesday night at the Daw Junior High School.

Chief Warrant Officer Sam Coles Jr. was instructor. A test from national headquarters on the course will be held within the next three or four weeks. Twelve attended, including eight cadets and four senior members.

Work has been started on remodeling a building at Hillcrest for the headquarters. It will probably be completed by the end of October. Gene Johnston donated the building. The squadron will meet next Wednesday at 7 p. m. at the school.

Rotarians In Midland Plan Wives' Dinner

Plans were outlined for the Rotary Ann dinner meeting when the Midland Rotary Club met Thursday night at the club pavilion on Murphys Hill. About 29 attended.

The annual event will be held Thursday at the Fairview Grange Hall in Ohioville at 6:30 p. m. Charles Smith is program chairman.

Thomas Fannin was in charge of last night's program. Raymond Stowitzky, president, presided.

Boy Injured In Grid Play

An East End youth injured playing football and a Wellsville youth hurt at work in a store were among six area residents treated Thursday at City Hospital.

Gary Oakes, 14, son of Clifford Oakes, 2115 Michigan Ave., suffered an injury to the left hand while playing football at East Junior High School.

David Hoffman, 17, son of Bruce Hoffman, 816 Broadway, Wellsville, received a laceration of a finger on a beverage bottle at work at the Mason's Foodliner.

While in East Liverpool High School gym class, Bruce Newman, 17, son of David Newman, 717 Minerva St., ran into another boy, receiving a laceration of the side of the forehead.

Judy Ring, 6, daughter of Herbert Ring, 782 Fenton St., suffered a cut of the forehead in a fall at play.

Michael Walker, 1½, son of James Walker, 910 May St., was treated for an injury of the right finger suffered while at play.

Mrs. Faye Chamberlin of the Travelers Hotel was treated for a wound of the left forehead suffered when bitten by a horse.

Matthew Cashdollar, 9, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy Cashdollar of George St., Chester, was X-rayed for a knee injury suffered when he fell from his bicycle after it skidded on gravel Wednesday night on Louisiana Ave.

County Medical Auxiliary Plans Future Projects

Future projects were discussed at the meeting of the auxiliary of the Columbiana County Medical Society Tuesday afternoon with Dr. and Mrs. William A. Kolozsi of Salem.

Mrs. Stephen Sinclair, chairman of the American Medical Education Fund, listed several tentative suggestions.

In memory of Mrs. J. F. Jose of Damascus, who died last month, the group voted a contribution to the memorial fund of the AMEF.

Mrs. Leonard Pritchard of Columbiana, president, conducted business. Mrs. Wade Bacon distributed program booklets and gave a resume of the year's events.

The group planned to attend the 6th District meeting Oct. 23 at Warren, along with the medical unit.

Covers were arranged for 18 at the luncheon served by the hostess.

Next meeting is Oct. 15 when a joint session will be held with the Medical Society at the Wick Hotel in Lisbon. Dr. John McDonough of Youngstown, who spent six months on the Ship Hope, will speak.

6 Ohio Rackets Figures Facing Quizzing Today

YOUNGSTOWN, Ohio (AP)—Under subpoenas from the state fire marshal, a trio of Youngstown racket figures were due in the fire chief's office here this morning to answer questions. A trio of Canton racket figures were to go to the fire chief's office in that city for the same purpose this afternoon.

Deputy State Fire Marshal Michael J. Melillo declined to disclose in advance the nature of the state's investigation, but there were reports it involved the murder of Dominick Moio, 61, who had been involved in rackets in both cities. Moio's charred body was found in the trunk of his parked car near a strip mine southwest of Canton Sept. 3. He had been shot in the head.

Subpoenaed for interrogation here were Jasper (Fats) Aiello, who has just completed a 60-day term for carrying a concealed weapon; Joey Naples, whose two brothers, Sandy and Billy, were victims of unsolved gangland killings; and Ronald Carabba, now under indictment by a federal grand jury for income tax evasion. Due at the Canton hearing were Louis J. Battista, convicted gambler; Louis Christian, who served six months for second-degree manslaughter in 1941; and Pat Ferruccio, a juke box company operator convicted for hauling bootleg liquor in 1936.

Religious Groups Need Understanding

No matter what our religion may be, or whether or not we profess to belong to any religious faith or sect, we and our children would grow even more enthusiastic about it for themselves. It has always seemed to me that one can sincerely believe that this particular faith or religious way or philosophy of life is best for him, without condemning or belittling any other faith, belief or philosophy of life.

My bulletins, "The Young Child and Religion" and "Graces and Prayers for Young Children", may be secured by sending a self-addressed stamped envelope to me in care of The Review.

They also still observe Rosh Hashanah as their religious New Year, as the Bible instructs them:

"On the first day of the seventh month you shall have a holy convocation; you shall do no laborious work. It is a day for you to blow the trumpets."

ACCORDING TO Jewish tradition, Rosh Hashanah is the day on which God judges the deeds of every man. Jews faithful to their religion resolve on this day to live better lives. They also pray for forgiveness and a year of peace and happiness for themselves and all the world.

Christians might, without disloyalty to their own type of religion, consider emulating their Jewish brethren on this day. I can imagine the time might come when Christians, Moslems, Buddhists, Hindus and persons of other faiths will join in celebrating this day or another day agreed upon, resolving to live better lives and praying for forgiveness and for peace in all the world.

If I were again a teacher in a Christian Sunday school, I would help make the children familiar with the present religious practices related in the Old Testament of devout Jews on such special days as Rosh Hashanah.

Also, if I were a teacher of children in a Jewish synagogue I can imagine myself helping these children grow familiar with some of the special days celebrated by Christians and other leading faiths.

MY HOPE WOULD be that these children would first see that all these religious groups worship the same God and that they might gain such deep insights and appreciation of all persons whose religious beliefs and ways are different from their own as, naturally, to feel kindly toward them so that they could not have any hate of them in their hearts.

In all such endeavors I would hope that these children would feel no less loyal to their own faith and religious practice, but

It's Small World

Chance Meeting In Argentina

Jack Lanam of Highland Ave., Wellsville, discovered the old adage, "It's a small world" is really true. During a visit to Argentina this summer he met a man from Wellsville.

Lanam was guest speaker at a meeting of the Wellsville Kiwanis Club Tuesday noon at Platt's Tea Room. An employee of the Mack-Intosh-Hemphill Co. of Midland, he was sent to Argentina for three months on a technical assistance program.

The program is sponsored by the federal government in co-operation with industry. Lanam helped convert an iron foundry to steel production.

LANAM said he was attending dinner and when questioned as to his home town, one of the other men spoke up and said "I just met another man from Wellsville." It was W. C. (Ike) Lewis who is working in a steelmill there and will remain two more years.

Lanam said they were introduced and he visited the fellow townsman, who now makes his home in the South American country.

Spanish is the common language in Argentina, although there are a large number of other European nationalities represented, Lanam said. The government is very unstable as is the economic status of the country. There is a great deal of U. S. assistance and the country is one of the larger purchasers of raw materials and products from America.

The government, which is presently controlled by the Army, is very anti-Communist, although there is a great deal of Communist agitation.

LANAM said the government owns most of the industry, including the largest steel mill. He said most of the steel produced by this plant is stockpiled for lack of a market. The country is not interested in selling its steel on the foreign market. The biggest export is beef, which he said is very reasonably priced and one can obtain the finest steak, with all the trimmings, for a dollar.

The country has numerous millionaires, many of whom own private industries. There is no middle class — "the people are either rich or poor."

The few large cities are modern and beautiful but the smaller ones are very old and lack much in the way of progress, although they all are clean.

The climate is fair, but damp in the winter months. Transportation in the big cities is satisfactory but there is none outside them, he said.

THE COUNTRY has five different gauges of railroads. There is a fine educational system "which in many respects is superior to ours," he commented. Education is free with seven years of college work required. "The elementary and high school courses are advanced in comparison to ours, according to the age groups," he added.

Most autos are of ancient vintage, with many 1912 models still in use. Ford and Kaiser have started mass producing cars and this situation should change shortly, he commented.

The average wage is 50 cents an hour and the disease rate is low, he concluded.

Twenty-one attended. The club will elect officers next Tuesday.

Glenmoor Legion Rankings Given

Glenmoor American Legion Post 736 was the first in the 10th District and fourth in the state to reach its 1964 membership quota.

Bill Fletcher, commander, made the announcement of the rankings at a meeting Wednesday night.

A $10 donation was made to the Pony League. Plans were made to present flags to the Mary Paterson Memorial and Beaver Local High School.

Four members attended the County Legion Council meeting Friday night at Salineville. The team in the county traveling league will bowl Sunday.

Plans were made for a Veterans Day banquet Nov. 9. Jerry Knight of Massillon, 10th District first vice commander, will be guest speaker.

Lunch was served by Robert Buckley, second vice commander. Next meeting is Oct. 8.

Sheppard To Be Topic

CLEVELAND (AP) — Ariane Tebbenhjohann will be the lecturer and Dr. Sam Sheppard the subject Wednesday in the only arranged appearance so far by the 34-year-old divorcee to speak in defense of her love for the convicted wife slayer. The blonde German woman said Thursday night she hopes to give other free lectures after speaking to members of the suburban Brooklyn Exchange Club and their wives.

Midland PTA Opens Season

Introduction of new teachers and class visitation featured the initial fall meeting of the Midland 1st St. Parent-Teacher Association Thursday afternoon at the school. Mrs. John Hossey, new president, assumed her duties, along with the other officers.

The teaching staff was introduced by Supt. Ralph H. Jewell. John E. Wilson, supervising principal of the elementary schools, was guest speaker, discussing "What Our Schools Should Accomplish During the 1963-64 Term."

Additional committee members announced by the president include Mrs. Rinaldo Ulizio, holiday treats; Mrs. Robert Allen, librarian; Mrs. Paul Vovnovich, pianist; Mrs. Cecil Murphy, first grade homeroom mother, and Mrs. Thomas Kraker and Mrs. Emil Onuska, homeroom mothers for Mrs. Cecelia Santangelo's afternoon kindergarten class.

The invocation was given by Wilson, followed with the flag salute and group singing led by Mrs. Irene Steinacker, third grade teacher, who also read the PTA's 10 commandments.

Tea was served by the hospitality committee with Mrs. George Zetz chairman. Cookies were provided by Mrs. Simmie Hill and Mrs. Carl Lacey. Next meeting is Oct. 17.

James Crooks To Be Area Head In Dimes March

James Crooks of East Liverpool and John Snyder of Lisbon were named county co-chairmen for the annual March of Dimes drive in Columbiana County at a meeting of county chapter officials Wednesday night at Lisbon.

Richard Brian, county chairman, said Snyder will direct the drive for the northern half and Crooks the southern half of the county.

Reports given showed Columbiana County with 12-cent per capita giving ranked it 40th of the 90 districts in the state. Last year's collection showed from 2 to 24 cents per capita throughout the state.

The county group decided not to mail the 31,000 letters to home occupants and box holders this year as the response is not enough to warrant the expense.

The Mothers March of Dimes in all areas will be the main collection this year, Brian said.

Constriction Behind In Ohio, West Virginia

CLEVELAND (AP) — Construction activity in Ohio, Kentucky, West Virginia and Western Pennsylvania has lagged behind the national pace in the last five years, the Federal Reserve Bank of Cleveland reports in its monthly business review.

In 1958, the 4th Federal Reserve District had about 10 per cent of the nation's total construction contracts, but in 1962 the share had slipped to 8.5 per cent and is dropping still lower this year, the bank reported Thursday.

SEX DISCUSSION

Q. Should parents discuss sex with their children, or should they provide reading material on the subject?

A. Reading material is helpful but read the book yourself before giving it to the child. Later, the book can be the basis for informal discussion between parent and child to clarify misunderstandings. Parents, of course, should be well-informed. Unfortunately, many are not.

SWIMMING PROBLEM

Q. Is it harmful to get water in the ears while swimming?

A. It's probably not good for the ears and, under certain circumstances, may lead to serious difficulty. The inner portion of each ear houses, an organ of balance which can be put out of commission by injecting cold water into the external ear canal. Nothing happens when both ears are simultaneously given the cold water treatment, but real trouble develops when only one ear is so affected. The person becomes very dizzy and is thrown completely off balance. This can occur in swimmers when, for example, one ear contains enough wax to keep the cold water out. Cold water entering the other ear may lead to extreme dizziness. All swimmers should make sure that they do not have wax in the ears—especially in one ear only—before going into the water.

Central Coach Impressed...

In 1956 when Bernie Allen was pitching passes for the Potters, Steubenville Central came to town to administer one of the two defeats suffered by East Liverpool that season. It was a squeaker, 20-19.

Playing end on that 1956 Central team was Ted Maley, who was injured in that particular game, the injury ending his football career.

Maley will be with the Crusaders again when they invade Patterson Field Saturday night as an assistant coach. Before joining the coaching staff, Maley was signed for a $20,000 bonus by the Cincinnati Reds and spent five years in their farm system.

It was his job to scout the Potters last Friday night when they played Midland. He obviously was impressed.

"This is a much improved team over last year and East Liverpool is a good, sound club," Maley reported to Central's head coach, Dick Pont.

We feel Potter fans will agree that a great deal of improvement has been shown by the Blue and White gridders over last season.

Tomorrow night's game will be a most important contest for the Blue and White. Central appears to be the strongest club East Liverpool has faced to date and should prove a real test.

DICK PONT, head coach of the Steubenville Central eleven, is the brother of John Pont, the former Miami (Ohio) University mentor who is now head coach at Yale.

Potters Ranked...

THE ASSOCIATED PRESS high school poll which appears in the Review will start next week. United Press International released its first poll this week, with East Liverpool being ranked 18th.

This marks the highest East Liverpool has been ranked since 1960.

As expected, Niles led the UPI ratings by a wide margin. Alliance was picked second and Martins Ferry third.

The Potters meet both Alliance and Martins Ferry in the latter part of the season.

The Ohio schoolboy race could very well be sewed up by Niles this season. The major test for Coach Tony Mason's boys is expected to be Cincinnati Roger Bacon, a team ranked sixth in the poll.

Massillon drew the No. 10 spot, but the Tigers were upset last week by a strong Akron Garfield outfit.

Weekend Pickings...

WE HAD seven right and three wrong on last week's scoreboard and came within two points of picking the margin of victory by the Potters over Midland.

Before the season got under way we felt one of East Liverpool's losses this season possibly would be to Steubenville Central. We are pulling a reverse here and picking the Potters over the Crusaders tomorrow night, 22-14.

In games tonight around the district, Toronto over Wellsville, 22-12; Midland to end Beaver's long winning streak with a 14-13 victory; Beaver Local to win its first over Springfield Local 14-8; East Palestine 16, Sebring 6; Leetonia 20, Louisville 14; Lorain 20, Salem 6; Sharpsburg 26, South Side 6, and Stanton Local 16, Wayne 8.

Saturday's picks: Weirton Madonna 12, Oak Glen 6; Southern Local 20, Midvale 6; Columbiana 22, Poland 14; United 16, East Canton 8, and Lowellville 36, Crestview 6.

3 Mid-American Powers Will Meet Outside Foes

By The Associated Press

The three perennial powers of the Mid-American Conference will test their 1963 football potential against tough outside foes Saturday as the highlight of Ohio's first big pigskin afternoon of the year.

Then, Saturday night, the favored four of the Ohio Conference will set about reducing the title favorites' list to two in head-to-head battles.

Detroit at Bowling Green, Xavier at Miami (Ohio) and Buffalo at Ohio University feature a seven-game daylight slate.

Muskingum at Akron and Wittenberg at Baldwin-Wallace are the O.C. games which, along with Toledo at Dayton and Drake at Cincinnati, headlines in 11-game arc-light show.

Bowling Green's Falcons will be sharpening their claws for defense of their Mid-American championship. Oxford fans will see Miami's first game under new Head Coach Bo Schembechler and a vaunted, veteran Redskins backfield. Another first-year Mid-Am coach, Toledo's Frank Lauterbur, debuts at Dayton, where Coach Pete Ankney also is a newcomer. Ohio U.'s Bobcats meet a Buffalo team that beat Gettysburg 34-0 last week.

Wittenberg, loaded with returnees from the unbeaten 1962 outfit, starts in quest of a fourth straight Ohio Conference diadem.

Pitt, UCLA Open Season Tonight

By JIM BECKER
Associated Press Sports Writer
The grand old custom of opening with a breather has long since been discarded, with the result that a number of college football teams may have their seasons wrecked this weekend before autumn even dawns officially.

The first full week of the season has some tough scraps scheduled, three of them tonight.

Then on Saturday, nine of the 11 teams in The AP's pre-season big ten—there was a tie for the last spot—get under way. There will be some shattered dreams by midnight. And fall doesn't even start officially until Monday.

Big Schedule Saturday

UCLA and Pitt are on the slate tonight, with Pitt favored and UCLA upset-minded.

The Orange Bowl will have another tough night game, Miami and Florida State. Miami has George Mira and some fancy sophomores. State has its own prototype passer in Steve Tensi. State Coach Bill Peterson predicts victory.

Tulane, winless last year, and No. 5 Texas, unbeaten in regular play, meet in the other major clash tonight.

On Saturday, No. 1 Southern California opens defense of its national crown against Colorado and No. 2 Mississippi should romp against Memphis State in a night game.

From there on it gets tougher.

No. 3 Alabama meets Georgia. No. 4 Oklahoma gets Clemson, no soft touch. No. 6 Northwestern meets Missouri. Northwestern with Tom Myers throwing, is a touchdown favorite.

No. 7 Wisconsin, the Big Ten champion, meets Western Michigan, and No. 8 Arkansas gets Oklahoma State, at night.

Navy, No. 9 and blessed with a schedule that would make the Green Bay Packers shudder, meets upset-minded West Virginia.

Washington, tied with Ohio State for the No. 10 spot, gets a test from Air Force, in the national television game. Ohio State is idle.

Dodgers Set To Wrap Up '63 Pennant

LOS ANGELES (AP) — With words of warning from Manager Walt Alston that they still have to win the National League pennant, the Los Angeles Dodgers buckled down to their final home stand tonight.

They send big Don Drysdale against the Pittsburgh Pirates in the first of three games. Dry-

Dad's Night Stated At EL-Central Game

Dad's Night will be observed before the East Liverpool-Staubenville Central game Saturday. Earl Burlingame, chairman for the Blue and White Nonpareil Club, has requested all fathers of Potter players to meet under the stadium at 7 p. m. Each father will be introduced before the contest.

dale will be looking for his 10th victory and his opponent, Don Cardwell, seeks his 14th.

Johnny Podres and Sandy Koufax will be the Dodger pitchers Saturday and Sunday.

The series opened on a happy note for Danny Murtaugh, who was reappointed manager of the eighth-place Pirates, whom he has served since 1957.

There will be three games next week against the New York Mets and the season closes with three against Philadelphia.

Ryan Hopes To Stay On Target Again

CLEVELAND (AP) — Quarterback Frank Ryan—who's studying for his Ph.D. in physics at Rice University in the off season—has a formula that could enable the Cleveland Browns to dump the Cowboys at Dallas Sunday.

It's simply to repeat his passing performance against the Washington Redskins last Sunday that made him the National Football League's third-leading passer for the first week.

Ryan completed 67.7 per cent of his attempts. He leads the league in piling up yardage through the air with 334 yards.

But he thinks he can do better. "Each year it's like beginning all over again," he said. "It takes me a while to scrape off that rustiness from the off season."

Ryan attributed his performance last Sunday partly to being more familiar with his receivers.

The Cowboys will be without George Andrie, regular defensive end, who suffered a dislocated elbow in their last exhibition.

Come Home, Braves, Boston Mayor Writes

Mayor John F. Collins Thursday wrote to Braves President John McHale suggesting the National League baseball team which moved to Milwaukee from Boston 10 years ago, come home.

Rumors have been common lately that the Braves might move again.

Dick Stuart, first baseman for the Boston Red Sox, is the only major leaguer who ever drove home 100 runs in a season in both leagues.

Gridlers Cautioned On Mouth Protectors

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Public Health Service cautioned high school and college football players today to wear mouth protectors to prevent damage to the mouth and teeth.

Asst. Surgeon General Donald J. Galagan, chief of the division of dental public health and resources, said injuries to the face and mouth account for more than half of all football injuries.

EAST PALESTINE — Robert Rowe of Alice St. has been elected president of the Boosters Club, and Walter Pickett has been named vice president. With 510 members registered at present, the group plans continuation of a membership drive.

Blatnik, who played 18 years of professional baseball finally reaching the major leagues with the Philadelphia Phillies in 1948, reminded the audience of what the local Pony League team accomplished this past season, by saying "East Liverpool was one of 16 teams remaining in the United States and Canada out of a total of 750 which started the tournament."

"Education comes first," Blatnik reminded the players. "I passed up a college scholarship to go right into professional baseball but if I had it to do over again I would have gone to college first. A college diploma is almost a necessity these days."

Blatnik is a football and basketball official and has worked basketball games in East Liverpool. He also is an official in the United Football League.

Aaron Eyes Triple Crown In Season's Homestretch

By MIKE RATHET
Associated Press Sports Writer

Hammerin' Hank Aaron of the Milwaukee Braves has a solid shot at becoming only the 10th player to wear baseball's triple crown of batting, homers and RBI and the first in the National League in more than a quarter of a century.

The right-handed hitter, previously overshadowed by the tight pennant struggle, now has the stage and spotlight to himself in a bid to grab the coveted and elusive major league honor.

While Aaron, 29, continues his bid at Chicago today, the Los Angeles Dodgers open a nine-game home stand against Pittsburgh, hoping to wrap up the pennant race quickly after sweeping the vital three-game series with second-place St. Louis.

The Cardinals, four games behind with only seven to play, will be trying to keep their hopes alive at Cincinnati. Any combination of five Los Angeles victories and/or St. Louis defeats will give the Dodgers their first pennant since 1959.

Aaron, trying to become the first triple crown winner in the National League since Joe Medwick of St. Louis in 1937, leads the league with 42 homers and 127 runs batted in, but must come out on top in a six-man struggle for the batting title.

Aaron, of course, has always figured he has the advantage. As he explains it:

"The pitcher has only got a ball. I've got a bat. So the percentage in the weapons is in favor of me."

The schedule isn't. Aaron, currently hitting .319, has just eight games remaining. Dick Groat of St. Louis is leading with a .323 mark. Roberto Clemente of Pittsburgh, San Francisco's Orlando Cepeda and Tommy Davis of Los Angeles are tied at .321 and Cincinnati's Vada Pinson is at .319.

Davis is the defending champion off a .346 average in 1962. Clemente won with .351 in 1961 and Groat won with .325 in 1960. Aaron, who has won all three titles making up the triple crown at different times during his 10-year career, hit a league-leading .355 in 1959.

Al Kaline became the second American Leaguer to hit the 100-RBI mark this season as he drove in four runs Thursday with two homers, a triple and a single in Detroit's 8-6, 13-inning victory over Minnesota.

In the only other game scheduled in either league, Bo Belinsky pitched a five-hitter in the Los Angeles Angels' 7-2 triumph over Baltimore.

Eighty-five attended a banquet Thursday night at the Travelers Hotel honoring the 1963 East Liverpool Pony League All-Stars who were regional champions.

Futurity Tops Racing Card

The Futurity, a race that has produced more 2-year-old champions than any other, is down for its 74th running at Aqueduct Saturday and if some juvenile is ready to start wrapping up the 1963 title this is the time to start. The 2-year-old colt division is in a state of confusion.

From 12 to 15 youngsters may start in the 6 1/2-furlong race, which will gross about $150,000, and the probable favorite is Joseph M. Robeling's Black Mountain, unbeaten in four starts.

For years the Futurity was decided on the old Belmont Park straight course, with the winner usually marked as the one to beat the following year in the Kentucky Derby and other 3-year-old classics. The more recent winners include Citation, Battlefield, Tom Fool, Native Dancer, Portierhouse, Nashua, Bold Ruler, and last year's juvenile champion—Never Bend.

NROTC Exams Planned Dec. 14

The 18th annual national competitive examination for the regular Naval Reserve Officers Training Corps will be Dec. 14. Eligible high school seniors and graduates must submit their applications before Nov. 22.

Forms are available at the schools, from Chief Petty Officer Kenneth Brooks, local recruiter, or from the Chief of Naval Personnel, Department of Navy, Washington 25, D. C.

Seniors and graduates must be 17 but not over 21 on June 30, 1964. Those who make a qualifying score on an aptitude test will be interviewed and given a medical examination early in 1964. From the number of qualified men remaining, about 2,000 will be selected to attend college next September.

Those selected are given a choice of attending 52 colleges. All tuition, fees and books are furnished by the Navy and the student receives a retainer of $50 per month for up to four years. Summers are spent on cruises. After graduating, the student is commissioned in the regular Navy or Marine Corps and goes on active duty.

4-H News

Columbiana County had 10 delegates at the 46th annual 4-H Club Congress at the Ohio State University campus at Columbus, which was ended Wednesday.

The theme was "Citizenship—The Key in '63 for Our Community, Our World, Our Government, and Ourselves," according to Robert Lewis, associate county extension agent in 4-H work.

The county group included Brenda Wilhelm and Paul Bartholow of Salem R. D. 3; Sydney Johnson of Salem R. D. 1; Janet Ferguson, Keith Serafy, Ronald Frischhorn and Bob Dornick of Wellsville R. D. 1; Dale Bartholow of Leetonia R. D. 1; Linda Converse of Leetonia R. D. 2, and Don Stonemetz of Homeworth R. D. 1.

The Columbiana County 4-H Steer Club committee has announced the beginning of the 1963-64 program. All members planning to show steers at the 1964 County Fair are to obtain their steers between Friday and Oct. 30.

Steers must weigh 325 to 475 pounds at the time of purchase and members are not permitted to pay over 30 cents per pound. A dated weight slip and application must be turned into the Columbiana County Co-operative Extension office before Nov. 5 and prospective members may obtain rules and application forms by contacting the county extension office.

A wiener roast was held by the Churchill Chippers 4-H Club Monday night with the advisor, Mrs. Ralph Moore, of Elkhart.

The group presented an achievement program Friday night for the Elkhart Grange at the Grange Hall. The group will meet Oct. 17 with Mrs. Moore. Mrs. Harold Dixon is associate advisor.

Reservations are due by Oct. 1 for the annual Columbiana County 4-H advisors banquet to be held Oct. 10 at Crestview High School, southeast of Columbiana.

Robert Lewis, associate county extension agent in 4-H, said the Rev. Russell H. Hoy, who writes for the Ohio Farmer under the heading of "Country Parson," will be guest speaker.

The annual affair is an expression of appreciation for advisors helping to make a success of the 1963 4-H program in the county.

Junior Editors Quiz on AUTOMOBILES

QUESTION: How do automobile brakes work?

ANSWER: If you ever watch while a wheel on the family car is being changed, you will notice the metal disc from which the wheel was taken. It is called the brake drum and its position is shown in our picture. On the inside of this drum is the brake shoe which can be either free from the revolving brake drum with its wheel, or pushed against the revolving brake drum causing it to slow down and the car to stop. Brakes like this are generally fitted on all four wheels. They are operated as shown in (A).

When the driver's foot presses down on his foot brake pedal, it starts fluid flowing from the master cylinder to pistons in the wheel cylinders. These press the brake shoes against the brake drums. Large trucks and buses use air instead of fluid for pressure. With power brakes, the fluid or air is forced to the brakes by means of a vacuum made by the engine.

A car also has an "emergency brake," somewhat similar to the footbrake, which generally operates against the rear wheels. To prevent friction from causing great heat when the metal parts rub together, brakes are covered with asbestos or some other kind of heavy fabric.

FOR YOU TO DO: Next time a tire is changed on your car, take a good look at the brake drum and see if you can find the piston cylinder behind it.

Paula Kababik of South Norwalk, Conn., wins the daily grand prize of a 20-volume set of World Book Encyclopedia for this question. Mail yours on a postcard to Junior Editors in case of The Review and you too may win a set.

People In News

Actress Greer Garson, who counts an Oscar among her awards, has a new trophy.

The 55-year-old star of stage and screen showed the female champion in the Gertrudis cattle division at the New Mexico State Fair. Miss Garson and her husband, Buddy Fogelson, own a ranch near Pecos, N.M.

CHICAGO (AP)—"How wonderful it is that people retire from the presidency," says the Rev. Dr. Eugene Carson Blake, head of the United Presbyterian Church in the U.S.A.

That was Dr. Blake's reaction when told that former President Harry S. Truman had said the South would solve its racial problems if Northerners would mind their own business.

Dr. Blake, who has joined several Negro demonstrations for civil rights, told a news conference Truman is "out of touch with reality on this one."

BRASILIA, Brazil (AP)—President Tito of Yugoslavia, who's trying to drum up new business in Latin America for his Communist country, met briefly with President Joao Goulart of Brazil. Sources said they discussed problems of underdeveloped countries and will meet again.

Tito also is trying to win support for his cold war non-alignment policy. At a banquet in Tito's honor, Goulart made a point of saying Brazil is in no one's camp.

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—James P. Mitchell, secretary of labor in President Eisenhower's Cabinet, has been appointed coordinator of human relations in San Francisco. Mayor George Christopher selected Mitchell for the task of handling racial discrimination problems. The job doesn't pay a salary.

One of the longest sentences in literature occurs in Victor Hugo's 'Les Miserables'. This sentence contains 823 words, 9 commas, 51 semi-colons, and four dashes.

Ann Landers

ANSWERS YOUR PROBLEMS

Dear Ann Landers: If you think I'm being silly, please say so and I'll never bring up the subject again. But frankly, I feel hurt.

In our family when someone sneezes, we always say, "God bless you." It's more than good manners, it's wishing someone well.

This man I'm going with is thoughtful and considerate in a great many ways. But when I sneeze he never says anything. I always say, "God bless you" when he sneezes, and I have even made a point of asking him to do the same for me. Somehow he forgets.

Last night I sneezed three times in a row. He sat and didn't say a word. I finally said, "Bill, I sneezed." He replied, "Do you have a cold?" I gave up then and there.

Why is he like this? What can I do about it?—ROZETTA.

Dear Rozetta: Blessing the sneezer is a family custom which is learned early or not at all. The person who is not conditioned to this custom is virtually deaf to a sneeze.

Bill will never be a "gezund-heiter" because it is not a part of his training. So give up already—and forget it.

Neighborhood Boys

Dear Ann: The neighbor's sons are 11 and 13 years of age. They're undisciplined, impolite and they use bad language. I don't mean their grammar is incorrect. I mean they use vulgar words.

Our son, Lawrence, who will be 12 next December, plays ball with these little hoodlums. Lawrence seems not to notice that they are roughnecks and he enjoys being with them.

Children learn from association and I don't want Lawrence to pick up any of their nasty habits. My husband says he grew up in the toughest neighborhood

ELHS Band And Orchestra Mothers Make Contribution

A contribution of $500 was made towards the new concession stand at Patterson Field at the opening fall meeting of the East Liverpool Band and Orchestra Mothers Tuesday night in the band room. About 100 attended.

Mrs. Charles R. Waggoner, president, gave the welcome and introduced Vincent Maola Jr., supervisor of instrumental music, who greeted new members and spoke on the band and its activities.

He said that the merit system will be used again this year for attendance.

The band has been invited to present the full half-time show for the Ohio Wesleyan-Otterbein football game Nov. 9, when Dad's Day will be observed.

Maola commended Greg Claypool for his fine job as head drum major and student director of the marching band. This is Claypool's first year in that capacity.

The director has received many letters of congratulation for the band's fine performances and for courtesies extended visiting bands and spectators, the group was told.

Mrs. Willis Standley outlined fund-raising projects including sale of sweat shirts, Christmas candles, net dish cloths and Halloween candy. Proceeds will go to help to provide additional new uniforms needed for the growing band, costing more than $3,000.

The organization will also sponsor a rummage sale the week of Oct. 14 at the Rappert building.

Mrs. Emil Hasenstab and Mrs. George Leigh will be in charge.

Reports were presented by Mrs. Howard Claypool, secretary; Mrs. Donald Duke, treasurer; Mrs. Dale Craven, auditor; Mrs. Ernest Bates, social; Mrs. Burch-

A social event will be held Sept. 28. Fred Morrow, general program chairman, said the six point chairmen will meet Thursday at 7 p. m. to complete the programs for the next three months.
